POLS 103 (2271) State and Local Government

Reading Placement Test Level: College Reading

Prerequisite: None

Credit Hours: 3

State and Local Government is designed to introduce students to our federal system of government, and it specifically instructs students in the Constitutional basis for State and Local Governments as well as their structure and mechanics. The course emphasizes basic questions about the forces that produce order, conflict, and change in government. State and Local Government is recommended for political science majors pre-law students, criminal justice students and all students who want an understanding of the processes, functions and institutions of our system of government below the National Government level.
