Subsidized Loans: The federal government pays the interest on this kind of loan during your enrollment in school, during the grace period, and during any authorized deferments. This loan is awarded based on financial need.

Unsubsidized Loans: This loan is not need-based, and you are responsible for paying all interest throughout the life of the loan. A student may choose to pay the interest while in school or choose not to make the interest payment while in school; the interest will be added or capitalized onto the principle balance at repayment.

REQUIRED DOCUMENTS: Complete and submit this form to the Financial Aid Office via mail, in-person, through your Financial Aid Portal or Dropbox. Complete Entrance Counseling and the Master Promissory Note on the Student Federal Aid website.
