Queen Recipient of Latzer Art Award

The Lafayette Community College Gallery Committee has chosen student, Brittany Rios Queen, as the winner for the John and Bonnie Latzer Student Art Award for the Spring 2014 semester. The Latzer Art Award was established to recognize student achievement in the Fine Arts at Lafayette Community College. The winning artwork is a pottery project titled "Burnout" by Queen.

Queen was awarded a $250 scholarship to be used the following semester. The award may be applied to her tuition, fees and/or books. Queen, is a non-traditional student and is an Accounting & Business major from Parsons and will return in the fall. She created "Burnout" as a project in Ceramics 1 and plans to enroll in Ceramic 2 in the fall.

"This is the first art course I have taken and really enjoyed it. I was surprised to learn that I was the recipient of the Latzer Art Award," said Queen. "This scholarship will help me with books next semester."

Queen's piece of art will be now be permanently on display at Lafayette Community College.
